

Example of Research Paper outline

I. Introduction – Information about the disease

- a. attention grabber
- b. overview of the disease
- c. Define any key terminology need to understand the topic
- d. Highlight background information needed to understand the topic

II. Body

a. What is the disease?

- i. What is the definition?
- ii. What are the symptoms?
- iii. Who does it affect? (Insert statistics, past and present)

b. How has the disease been studied in the past?

- i. During a time period
- ii. Who discovered the disease
- iii. Is there research ongoing

c. What are the symptoms of the disease?

i. Are the symptoms different for:

1. age groups
2. gender
3. areas of the world

d. What the treatments for this disease?

e. What happens if the disease goes untreated?

III. Conclusion